

SILENCE, OPENNESS, PRESENCE

How to become your most powerful, authentic and aligned Self through deepening connection with the Divine

This is a two-part advanced workshop to deepen our connection with our Divine through our guides, and our truest selves, looking into anything that prevents us connecting with our core being, and discovering how to open to the unseen, the unknown, the Mystery. It is also a chance for practitioners to replenish, refresh and realign

The Apuane Mountains of north-west Tuscany (shown above) are powerful beings, and we have been working with the overlighting angels and devas to create the workshops. We will, of course, continue to consult them throughout the course, and include the mountains and other beings in our work. We will be looking at our core essences, the dark and light Shadow, Consciousness, and the growth of self-love. The Advanced course will emerge from the work we do in Part One but is likely to include work on vision, inspiration and leadership.

Between them, the facilitators have been working with the angelic realms for more than 22 years. Wendy Erlick is an Angel Reader and intuitive coach, the author of A Gift of an Angel: A Guide to Integrating Spirituality into Everyday Life. Cilla Conway is an artist, reader, and creator of The Intuitive Tarot, The Byzantine Tarot, and the Devas of Creation. She moved to Italy in 2016 and finds the land a constant source of joy and inspiration.

 Cilla Conway: "My intention for these workshops is to enable all of us (participants and facilitators alike) to grow and function in full connection with the Source and our deepest selves."

Wendy Erlick "The purpose of the workshops is to allow the integration of our selves so we can allow our presence at the highest level possible."
